Advertisement for Centenary Early Faculty Fellowship (CE2F)

S.No.	No. of Vacancies
01.	UR-14 SC-04 ST-02 EWS-02 OBC-NCL-08

The Centenary Early Faculty Fellowship (CE2F) will be initially for 1 year, extendable on satisfactory progress of the Fellow up to a maximum period of 2 years as certified by the Performance Appraisal Committee (PAC). However, on unsatisfactory progress, the fellowship may be terminated.

Job Profile: Teaching, research and other academic work as assigned by the Department/Institute.

The selected CE2Fs will be attached to a Department/Center/Facility with a regular faculty member of the Institute, who will act as a mentor. The CE2Fs are also encouraged to seek external funding by submitting research proposals to different funding agencies.

Eligibility : (a). PhD holders, including foreign nationals, within 5 years of completion of PhD with consistently good academic career and having at least three papers (as first or corresponding author) in SCI/SCIE/SSCI/AHCI journals will be eligible for Centenary Early Faculty Fellowship.

(b). PhD holders of IIT (ISM) will not be eligible to apply for a period of three years from the date of award of PhD.

Advertisement: The advertisement for Centenary Early Faculty Fellowship will be posted on the Institute's website.

The potential candidates are advised to visit the department website to look for the faculty research areas. They may approach to the faculty members working in her/his area of interest and accordingly they can prepare research proposal. They can indicate a list of preference of faculty members (maximum of 3) in the proposal.

Age: Maximum 35 years (to be relaxed as per Government of India guidelines).

Application Processing and Interview: Applications will initially be screened for plagiarism. Applicants' proposal with a similarity index less than 10% will be sent to the respective departments for further processing.

Applications received will be scrutinized by the DAC followed by final recommendation of the DFSC. The DFSC recommended candidates will be called for Interview.

Such candidates will be reimbursed 2nd AC to and fro fare from their place of stay by the shortest route for attending the interview. The interview may be conducted online for candidates from abroad.
